

Prayer Diary

March 2024

When praying for Church members, please also remember any family members who are not members of our Church.

We invite you to include in your daily prayers

-
- Friday 1st                      On this St David's Day, may we follow His example to be joyful, steadfast and 'do the little things.'
Church Member: Clare Goose
- Saturday 2nd                    For peaceful intervention where there is conflict, for aid where there is need, for compassion to replace judgement and for a safe place to call home. Lord help all Your people to "bear with each other in love".
Church Member: Barbara Grafton
- Sunday 3rd                      Lord, You made us stewards of Your creation. Show us how best we can care for all Your creatures.
Church Member: Robert Grafton
- Monday 4th                     Post Office workers and their families, affected by the the Horizon accounting scandal - that lessons will be learned.
Church Member: Sue Graham
- Tuesday 5th                    Carers and their families, that they may be blessed with patience, strength, love and hope.
Church Member: Peter Greaves
- Wednesday 6th                The Lent discussion series, continuing tonight. May the sessions inform and inspire us to be more a more intentional Church, striving for justice and fairness.
Church Member: Tony Green
- Thursday 7th                    Our Pastoral Visitors, in their role of communication, support and care for us.
Church Member: Judith Griffiths
- Friday 8th                        On this International Women's day we give thanks for the welcome and fellowship of our Link group.
Church Member: Muriel Halford
- Saturday 9th                    All those attending Bitesize Church at Colshaw tomorrow - may bodies and souls be nourished.
Church Member: Chris Hall
- Sunday 10th                    Lord, thank You for mothers, to whom You entrust every precious human life from its very beginning.
Church Member: David Hall
- Monday 11th                    Those mourning loved ones. May they be comforted by God's love, great mercy and promise of salvation.
Church Member: Abi Hall
- Tuesday 12th                    The Methodist NW England district as it launches today. May it be a beacon of love, unity and service.
Church Member: Ian Hall

-
- Wednesday 13th People battling alcoholism and other addictions, who have slipped back during these challenging times.
Church Member: Margaret Hall
- Thursday 14th Our neighbours, may our contacts with them be compassionate and respectful and reflect our faith.
Church Member: Sheila Hamilton
- Friday 15th The success of Red Nose Day “funny for money” event, supporting those in challenging circumstances
Church Member: Alison Hampson
- Saturday 16th “So do not fear for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you. I will uphold you with my righteous right hand.”
Church Member: Lorraine Harrison
- Sunday 17th On this St Patrick’s Day, we pray for easing of political frustrations and peace in Northern Ireland.
Church Member: Joyce Hart
- Monday 18th Lonely people, waiting for a phone call, a letter, a card or a friendly voice – could it be yours?
Church Member: Christine Hartley
- Tuesday 19th As Lent continues, remember those struggling to afford even the basics and bring an Easter donation for the Foodbank if you can.
Church Member: Ellie Haslam
- Wednesday 20th CAP Debt Centre clients, whose financial issues are often a consequence of more complex life situations.
Church Member: Paul Haslam
- Thursday 21st Homeless people in Stockport, may they receive the care and support they need to stay safe and help rebuild their lives.
Church Member: Tony Henson
- Friday 22nd The “Churches Together” initiative, the inspiration and fellowship it provides and the opportunity to work together and share resources.
Church Member: Jennifer Hibbert
- Saturday 23rd The volunteers at The Mill and the local young people benefitting from their guidance, care and support.
Church Member: Matt Hill
- Sunday 24th King of Peace, reign in our hearts and lives, this Palm Sunday and always. May we praise Your holy name.
Church Member: Jennifer Hilton
- Monday 25th “Now to Him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine...to Him be glory”.
Church Member: Joy Hogg

Tuesday 26th	"Create in me a pure heart, O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me." Church Member: Andy Holt
Wednesday 27th	To You, O God, be praise and glory, worship and adoration, today and always. Church Member: Vicki Holt
Thursday 28th	Those in need and those who have plenty, that we may learn to share all God's generous gifts. Church Member: Oli Hooks
Friday 29th	"O Love Divine, what have You done? The Immortal God has died for me!" Church Member: Derek Howarth
Saturday 30th	As the clocks go forward tonight, give thanks for Spring and for warmth, light and colour to cheer us. Church Member: Alan Hunter
Sunday 31st	"Jesus stand amongst us, in Thy risen power." Church Member: Stanley Jackson

Also, please remember those of our church family who died during March in years past, and their loved ones.

In Memoriam

Noel Catherall (2nd)	Norman Needham (2nd)
Madge Nicholas (2nd)	Judith Tuck (2nd)
May Woolnough (2nd)	Mollie Buckley (3rd)
Bert Howell (3rd)	Eric Knott (5th)
Nora Grieve (6th)	Denis Barr (7th)
John Bell (8th)	David Pennells (8th)
Paul Brundrett (9th)	Denis Brownlow (10th)
Ivan Hall (10th)	May Tattersall (11th)
Edna Wendt (12th)	Gordon Johnson (12th)
Pauline Baddeley (15th)	Lilian Savage (16th)
Arthur Buckley (19th)	Gillian Hellowell (20th)
David Lumb (21st)	Ada Ewing (22nd)
Vera Halpin (23rd)	Georgie Smith (24th)
Gwen Welch (24th)	Daniel Dennis (26th)
Chris Harris (26th)	Cyril Fletcher (27th)
Arthur Rothwell (28th)	Edna Brown (29th)
Rita Knott (29th)	Barbara Davenport (30th)